This procurement will result in a multiple source award.

Term - Bid awards issued under this Request for Bids shall be for an initial period of one year to renew automatically for one additional year if not canceled by The System prior to the one-year anniversary date of the award letter. Service Procedure for Contract Related Issues

How to Open a Case

ConvergeOne encourages customers to open tickets via the customer internet portal, access to which will be given to all customers upon commencement of support contracts. Your ticket call will come into our Help Desk and be routed to the appropriate Service Personnel based upon a variety of factors including the nature of the ticket issue. Once work has begun on your ticket, you will be provided tracking information such as a service order number to expedite future communications.

Please provide as much information as possible when opening a ticket. Be prepared to give a brief description of the problem, approximate date, and time the problem first occurred, and any other information such as recent power failures, software updates, equipment relocation, etc. which might be related to your problem. This will expedite the resolution process.

ConvergeOne will first attempt to resolve the problem remotely. If it is determined that the problem requires an onsite visit, the Help Desk will forward your ticket to the Services Coordinator, who will assign and dispatch the appropriate Engineer within the timeframe defined in the customer contract. If required, parts availability will be determined by the specific customer contract.

ConvergeOne will involve all applicable vendor related engineering resources as needed. You must maintain a vendor related support agreement covering the equipment effected (Cisco Smartnet, Microsoft SA, etc.) for ConvergeOne to escalate to vendor support. In the event the equipment is ConvergeOne owned hardware under a managed services contract, we maintain vendor support on that equipment and you will not need to provide us with a vendor support agreement number.

Priority Levels

All trouble tickets will be evaluated, assigned one of the following priority levels, and handled accordingly.

Vendors must submit customer satisfaction statistics or survey results concerning the quality of the products and/or services offered.

ConvergeOne Achieves World Class Status for Fourth Consecutive Year

In the IT service industry, the average IT Services NPS—as reported by ClearlyRated—is 42, which means that ConvergeOne's 2021 score of 80 is nearly double the industry average. This is the third year in a row that our score has placed us in the “World Class” NPS category, which is reserved for only the most customer-centric companies.

What is Net Promoter Score (NPS)?

NPS is a global standard for determining customer loyalty and satisfaction by asking one simple question: "On a scale from 0-10, how likely are you to recommend ConvergeOne to a friend or colleague?" It is calculated by subtracting the percentage of detractors (those who respond with a 6 or below) from the percentage of promoters (those who respond with a 9 or 10).

Platform as a Service

ConvergeOne has a history of deep capabilities in the networking, security, and data center areas. Networking is one of the major challenges organizations face as they move to the public cloud; most on-premises network engineers understand their networks very well, and most born-in-the-cloud companies understand cloud networking well. We have found, however, that most organizations do not have the expertise to integrate their on-premises networks into cloud-based network environments, especially for enterprise-grade connectivity and security. We specialize in network integrations that leverage Direct Connect, VPN, and Transit VPC architectures.

We also find that customers do not have the security and configuration expertise that is required to properly configure and secure their cloud environments. We make on-boarding easy and standardized for customers to help them understand how to architect, build, and deploy properly to the public cloud.

We have a key focus on customers who are new to the public cloud. Many of our projects begin with a short-term (60-90 day) pilot project to show a set of use cases, where we work with customers to do a proper on-boarding, and then show, through the pilot use cases, what it is like to live with and manage a public cloud environment, as well as how much it really costs. Cost optimization is a focus for us as well, as we recognize that most organizations that leave the public cloud do so because they do not understand how to cost-optimize their deployments--it is quite different than the on-premises world--and we provide the tools and knowledge to customers so that they can be successful. Our pilot projects usually lead to additional phases of more complex and business-critical workload deployments and migrations.

Cloud Professional Services

All of our Cloud Solution Architects hold multiple AWS and Azure certifications at the Associate and Professional level, covering all of the AWS and Azure certification disciplines, and the security specialization. Our SAs design, consult, and deploy based on customers' needs, and provide ongoing consulting services to ensure that customers continue to have a valuable experience after their initial project work is completed.

Cloud Managed Services

ConvergeOne offers managed services to support all types of migrations, DR projects, and workloads we deploy in the Cloud practice. Our goal is to provide customers with valuable experiences on an ongoing basis, so we support both the business side and the technical side of our customers' organizations in our managed services offerings.

For the business side, we provide quarterly business reviews, including reporting on cost optimization opportunities, best practices, security, and other areas. We also provide detailed invoicing reviews so customers fully understand their consumption of cloud services. If a recommendation needs changes, such as for cost optimization, we provide those services.

On the technical side of the business, managed services span the range of traditional monitoring and alerting as well as consulting hours and support of the business requirements, such as right-sizing, reserved instance purchases, and other steps that provide significant cost savings over on-demand pricing.

ConvergeOne is committed to customer satisfaction. Our customer relationships are the most important thing to us; we recommend, design, and deploy solutions that are durable, reliable, and that meet customers' needs. We also recognize that cloud services, with a monthly recurring Op/Ex model, require closer monitoring and care than many on-premises solutions. We believe that the public cloud is the future of technology solutions to allow customers to be more agile, more competitive, faster to market, and ultimately, more satisfied with their solutions--and we provide significant business value to help them get started and to work alongside them for a successful journey to the cloud.

The responsible vendors, whose bids are most advantageous, taking into consideration the evaluation factors, will be recommended for award.
